

Where can we have our picnic?

This document contains some references to establishments where you can have your lunch in the city center. Often, you'll have to buy a beverage in order to stay and have your lunch. We recommend that you make reservations.

Le Roy d'Espagne

This well-known Brussels café is located 10 minutes from the Comic Art Museum. Groups of up to 40 people are welcome here, on condition that they purchase a drink. Reservations are required for groups, a few days in advance, call: 02/513.08.07.

Grand-Place 1
1000 Brussels

The Bourse

Right in the centre and a 10-minute walk from the Comic Art Museum stands Brussels' majestic Bourse. Today, this building houses a large interactive center about beer: Belgian Beer World, and you can eat or have a drink there. Picknicking is allowed in the main hall and side rooms.

Boulevard Anspach 80
1000 Brussels

Théâtre Royal de Toone

Toone is a bar and a puppet theatre at the same time, located at 10 min. from the museum. Groups up to 110 people are welcome here between as of noon. For reservations: woltje@skynet.be or www.toone.be.

66 Rue Du Marché aux Herbes
1000 Brussels